QUESTIONS 26 – 32

Read the story about Ethan and then answer the questions.

For questions 26 – 32, mark the correct letter A, B, or C on the answer sheet.

ETHAN'S STORY

When Ethan left home at the age of eighteen, his grandfather gave him $750 to help him. Most of Ethan's friends took jobs at a car factory, but Ethan used his grandfather's money to buy a guitar. He traveled to big cities and played his guitar on the street. People passing by would throw money into Ethan's guitar case.

At first, his family didn't want Ethan to travel and play music on the street. His family thought that he should work in a factory instead. They hoped that one day he could save enough money to buy a house. But Ethan continued to travel to big cities and play music on the street. After a few months, Ethan was asked to play at a concert in one of the big cities. He met a famous band and they asked him to join them.

After one year, Ethan was travelling around the world with the famous band. He was making millions of dollars and having a lot of fun. He was so popular that he had to get someone to help answer all the letters people sent to him.
